

Why should I submit to him??? He's no better than I. As a matter of fact, I am better than him when it comes to spiritual matters. I have better judgement... I am smarter... I make more money...

I have no doubt these arguments have been circling around since the beginning of time... or at least soon after Adam and Eve were kicked out of the garden.

So why should you submit to a husband who is less spiritual than yourself, or who makes less money, or who has more problems in his life than you?

Because God said so....

All authority comes from God, and He chose to give it to your husband, despite your own perceived superiority. I'm sorry if this sounds really blunt, but if you refuse to submit to your husband for whatever reason (unless he asks you to sin) you are committing a sin.

But...

No buts... the Bible is clear.

Enough said.
